- (b) Equitable Adjustment. Upon early termination of the Agreement, Customer will pay Provider for Services delivered up to and including the date of termination.

10. Indemnification and Limitation of Liability.

- (a) Provider Indemnification. To the extent permitted by law, Provider agrees to indemnify the Customer and its employees, officers, and directors from liabilities, demands, judgments, assessments, damages, fines, penalties, losses, or expenses, including reasonable attorneys' fees (collectively "Losses"), incurred by reason of a third party claim caused by the Provider's negligence or willful misconduct in its performance of this Agreement, except to the extent that such Losses are solely caused by negligence or willful misconduct of Customer.
- (b) Customer Indemnification. To the extent permitted by law, the Customer agrees to indemnify Provider and its employees, officers, and directors from Losses incurred by reason of a third party claim caused by the Customer's negligence or willful misconduct in its performance of this Agreement, except to the extent that such Losses are caused by negligence or willful misconduct of Provider.
- (c) Indemnification Process. A party to this Agreement claiming a right of indemnification shall be referred to herein as the "Indemnified Party" and the party against whom the claim for indemnity is being made shall be referred to herein as the "Indemnifying Party." Neither Provider nor Customer shall in any event be liable for any indirect, consequential, loss of profits or revenue, enhanced damages or punitive damages, even if Provider or Customer have been advised of the possibility of such damages. The waiver of consequential damages and the limitation of liability set forth herein are fundamental elements of the basis of this Agreement between Provider and the Customer. Provider would not be able to provide the Services on an economic basis, and would not have entered into this Agreement, without such waiver and limitation. It is expressly understood and agreed that the foregoing provisions of this Section survive any expiration or termination of this Agreement to the extent the circumstances creating a liability covered hereby arose prior to such expiration.
