To Whom It May Concern,

Edward LaRose
Principal

I am writing to request permission for our film class to attend the Student Television Network (STN) Convention, taking place in Tampa, Florida, from March 1-4, 2024. This convention offers our students an unparalleled opportunity to engage with industry professionals, hone their technical skills, and compete in a variety of film and media challenges.

Principal

STN is a prestigious event that brings together student filmmakers from across the country, and this experience promises to be both inspiring and educational. Through workshops, hands-on competitions, and a college fair, students will gain insight into the television and film industry, explore career options, and connect with peers who share their creative passions.

John Weaver
Assistant
Principal

This event aligns perfectly with our program's goals of fostering creativity, teamwork, and professional development in our students. By attending STN, students will have the chance to apply the skills they have developed in class to real-world scenarios and receive constructive feedback from professionals in the field.

Jodi Slone
Assistant
Principal

The estimated cost per student is $200-$300, covering competition fees, hotel, and some meals. Students will be responsible for meals not covered, but we will engage in fundraising efforts to help reduce these costs.

We believe this experience will be invaluable for our students, enriching their education and helping them make meaningful connections within the media industry. Your support in granting permission for this trip would be greatly appreciated.

Thank you for considering our request.

Sincerely,

Hunter Schwefringhaus
